

Sharpening the Focus: State Policy to Promote Effective Teaching that Improves Learning

Resource List

November 2015

By: Kate Tarrant with Lori Connors-Tadros, Jana Martella and Debi Mathias

A special thank you to the Alliance for Early Success for their generous funding.

This document includes some of the resources that we have identified that pertain to our work about policies that promote teaching and learning. The resources are organized in two ways. First they are presented in topic areas and then we share them alphabetically. The articles and reports included are meant to pique new ways of thinking about early childhood teaching and program quality. It is not exhaustive and will be modified as we continue our work. On the last page we include websites from organizations that have developed many useful resources than can inform strategies to improve early childhood quality teaching and learning.
